Chapter II
SELDEN FAMILY

The founder of this family in Virginia was SAMUEL SELDEN, a lawyer who, according to a deposition in the Elizabeth City Records, came to Virginia in 1699, and boarded in 1700 at Mr. Bertram Servants'. He married REBECCA YEO, "cousin and heir at law" of Rebecca Yeo, wife of John Lear, Esq. (member of the Colonial Council), widow of Col. Leonard Yeo and Col. Charles Morryson. (See Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Vol. II, p. 385.)

Samuel Selden's will was dated May 29, 1720, and proved at the July court following: He gave his wife, Rebecca, "Buckroe," for life, and then to his heir-at-law; to son Joseph, the pla tation on Potomac Creek, in Stafford County; to son John, two plantations on Black River and "Old Fields," late in the tenure of Thomas Batts; to daughter Elizabeth, £60 sterling, and to son Bartholomew and daughter MARY MILNER other devisea.

Rebecca Selden's will is dated April 23, 1736, and mentions daughter Elizabeth, grandson Samuel Milner, Cary Selden, Samuel, Miles, Richard and Joseph Selden, granddaughter Eliza Selden; cousin George Yeo, and son John, executors.

The will of George Yeo was dated March 15, 1742; proved April 20, 1743. He gives to his son George Arnold, merchant in London, certain tenements in the burrough of Hatherly, commonly called by the name of Wadlands and Finch Parks; gives him also the plate I brought from England; to Cousin John Selden, £20, all my law books, "The Whole Duty of Man," "Sherlock on Providence," and "St. Augustine's Meditations"; to Joseph, son of Cousin John Selden, my dictionary and grammar; to Elizabeth, daughter of second cousin William Selden, one silver ribbon and a book entitled "The Master's Blessing"; to Robert Brough, son of William Brough, deceased, Owen's "Epigrams," Norvell's "Catechism," "Thomas a Kempis," one in Latin and one in English, Sherlock on "Judgment," and "The Five Bishops and the Doctors"; various legacies of clothing, furniture and books to my wife's daughters Mary and Grace Selden, and to her granddaughters, Agnes and Anne Howard and Mary Douglas; Cousin George Arnold in Great Britian and Cousin John Selden, of Virginia, executors. Witnesses: Charles Jenings, John Webb and George Cooper.

On March 2, 1702, license was granted William Bosell to marry Elinor Brough (widow of Coleman Grough) and June 22, 1727, George Yeo and Elinor, his wife, qualified as administrators of Capt. Wm. Boswll, deceased. In a deed from Coleman Wroe to David Meredith 1741, John Selden is mentioned as marrying one of the co-heirs of Capt. Wm. Bosell. Issue of Samuel Selden, Justice of the Peace of Elizabeth City County, attorney-at-law, etc, etc.:

1. I. Samuel Selden, mentioned in suit in 1714, but not mentioned in wills; probably died without issue.

June, 1823, a letter from Mrs. Harriet Selden, Arkansas, stating to me the birth of her daughter, Betty, on the 25th of June. After she came to Virginia she had another daughter named Josephine; in 1825 both baptized; husband was Joseph Selden, killed in a duel in Arkansas.
This is now 1833. I live to have this year three great-grandchildren:
My grandson, Dr. Wm. A. Selden, a daughter.
My grandson, Miles, a son.
Mrs. Graham, a daughter.
Granddaughter, Sarah Graham, a second, a son.
In 1831 my son William was married (November 28) to Miss Eliza Swann, of Virginia, who died 1835, leaving a son, William Henry Selden. His second wife was Emily Hunter, who had seven children, as given above.
March, 1814, I left Tree Hill and moved to Richmond where I took charge of the children of my beloved sons, I remained here until 1823, July 2nd, when I returned to Tree Hill.
June, 1824 was an afflicted, distressing time to me; the death of my poor, unfortunate son, Joseph, never to be forgotten by his afflicted mother.
1825, living at Tree Hill; much trouble and affliction and bad health much of the time in 1826-27.

Bishop Tucker consecrated

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 3--Rev. Dr. Beverly Randridge Tucker, Bishop Coadjutor-elect of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, was today consecrated to the bishopric in historic St. Paul's Episcopal Church here, of which he had been rector for nearly a quarter of a century.

There were present sixty bishops and distinguished clergymen from various dioceses. Bishop Randolph, of Southern Virginia, presided. Bishops Gibson, of Virginia, and Peterkin, of West Virginia, were the consecrators, and Bishops Satterlee, of Washington, and Cheshire, of North Carolina, were the presenters.

Rev. Dallas Tucker, of Bedford City, Va., and Rev. Luke M. White, of Pulaski, Va., were the attending presbyters, with Rev. Dr. W. A. Barr, of Norfolk, as master of ceremonies, and Rev. C. E. Woodson, of Norfolk as deputy register.

Bishop Peterkin of West Virginia, delivered the consecration sermon. Bishop Tucker will have joint jurisdiction with Bishop Randolph, the senior bishop of southern Virginia, but his particular wirl will be in the western part of the State. His residence will be in Roanoke, Va.

Bishop Tucker consecrated

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 3--Rev. Dr. Beverly Randridge Tucker, Bishop Coadjutor-elect of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, was today consecrated to the bishopric in historic St. Paul's Episcopal Church here, of which he had been rector for nearly a quarter of a century.

There were present sixty bishops and distinguished clergymen from various disceses. Bishop Randolph, of Southern Virginia, presided. Bishops Gibson, of Virginia, and Peterkin, of West Virginia, were the consecrators, and Bishops Satterlee, of Washington, and Cheshire, of North Carolina, were the presenters.

Rev. Dallas Tucker, of Bedford City, Va., and Rev. Luke M. White, of Pulaski, Va., were the attending presbyters, with Rev. Dr. W. A. Barr, of Norfolk, as master of ceremonies, and Rev. C. E. Woodson, of Norfolk as deputy register.

Bishop Peterkin of West Virginia, delivered the consecration sermon. Bishop Tucker will have joint jurisdiction with Bishop Randolph, the senior bishop of southern Virginia, but his particular wirl will be in the western part of the State. His residence will be in Roanoke, Va.

Baltimore Sun of Oct. 15, 1906:

Sunday, October 14, 1906, was a memorable day at St. Paul's, Norfolk. In the afternoon there was a beautiful and impressive farewell service to Dr. Augustin Tucker, son of Bishop Tucker, who sails as a medical missionary to China. The church was crowded. In the chancel were Bishops Randolph and Tucker, and clergymen of the city. The music was superb. Beautiful and appropriate addresses were delivered by the Rev. Mr. Thomson, of Trinity, Portsmouth, and the Rev. Dr. Morris, of Christ Church, Norfolk, The collection was for the work to which the young missionary is devoting his life. He goes to the work which God has called him accompained by the prayers and blessings of all of God's people, who wish him "good luck" in the name of the Lord.

On October 3rd, the day of the consecration of Dr. Tucker to the Bishopric, a beautiful memorial window was unveiled in St. Paul's Church, Norfolk, in memory of Mrs. Pegram, who was for many years one of the most devoted communicants of this church.

A meeting of the clericus of Norfolk was held Monday morning, October 8th. The Rev. W. Alexander Barr, rector of St. Luke's Church, was unanimously elected president in place of Rev. Dr. Tucker.
